THE MAN'S STORE

Clothes Make

the Man,

that is, if the clothes are properly made. If not properly made, they may unmake the man. A few of the great manufacturing tailors have learned the secret of making garments that are artistically cut—finely fashioned—evenly finished—as good as the most skilled tailor can izabion and finish, but at a price so much lower that their garments combine elegance and economy at the same time. Such is the case with this offer-
